

Round table
Transforming Postal Financial Institutions to achieve their financial inclusion potential

29 May 2018, Brussels

WSBI Premises, rue Marie-Thérèse 11

Programme

08.45 Welcome, goals and objectives

Chris De Noose, WSBI Managing Director

09.00 The potential of postal financial institutions to contribute to financial inclusion

Sabasaba Moshingi, Managing Director, TPB Bank, Tanzania

09.30 What is holding Postal Financial Institutions back?

Laurie Dufays, Deputy Director, WSBI

10.00 Conclusions of policy paper that presents the arguments for governments to fully support PFIs and their transformation into fully-fledged postal banks

Hans Boon, PostFinance International Development B.V

10.45 Coffee

11.15 Past and existing efforts: Conclusions from the African Postal Financial Services Initiative

Pedro De Vasconcelos, Policy and Technical Advisory Division, IFAD

12.15 Examples of success: case studies

Zakia Hazzaz, Director International Cooperation, ABB Morocco

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Moderated round table discussions: reactions and scope of potential initiatives

Moderator: Loïc De Cannière, Managing Director, Incofin

Interest of delegate institutions to participate in a potential initiative: what each might bring to the table; other potential interested parties

- Geography, target governments and other stakeholders
- Beneficiary institutions
- Steps to achieve success

15.30 Coffee

16.00 Continue moderated Round Table

- Anticipated improvements on current business models
- Other initiatives to take into consideration
- Sustainability
- Next steps and timescales

17.30 Summary of conclusions and close

Chris De Noose, Managing Director, WSBI